You don't know what love is
Until you really fall in love one time
You don't know what love is
Until you really fall in love one time

Oh, I remember what this love did with me
As I always blew my mind

From sun-up until sun-down
She kept my nose right on the ground
Oh, from sun-up until sun-down
She kept my nose right on the ground

Oh, she even chill out my life
Around a ball and chain
And now I know I will never be the same

And I'll be a fool to say it's all over
Her beautiful picture still lifts up my mind
And I'll be a fool to say it's all over
Her beautiful picture still lifts up my mind

Oh, brother you just don't know what love is
Until you really fall in love one time

Brother you don't know
Sister you don't know
Brother you don't know
Sister you don't know

I just don't know
You just don't know
Brother you don't know
Sister you don't know
