Alright, a-a-a-lright
I should be honest
with myself
I don't want
anybody else
I should just tell you
how i feel
right now

im done pretending
that im fine
im at your door
running through my lines
i wanna tell you
that my heart just beats for you

turn me on, turn me off
like a switch on your wall
im a toy you enjoy
but you're all im thinking of
on.off. like a switch on your wall
im a mess
i confess
that you're all im thinking of
alright
a-a-a-lright

it could be easy
plain to see
why should i
try to be discrete?
i tattooed your lips
on my wrist,
to remind myself
how it felt
when we kissed

this is crazy

I can't let you-

im a mess
i confess
that you're
all im thinking of

but i cant get enough
and they say
just a crush
she's a lush
bring you down
bring bring you down

(just a crush, just a crush, just a crush, just a crush) but my heart still beats for you

im a mess
i confess
on off, on off
switch on your wall
im a mess i confess

turn me on then turn me off b-but you're all im thinking of
