"No River"

Visit "No River" on MotoLyrics.com

I will walk along the beach by the ocean with my toes
Deep in the sand,
And you will be there with me, whispering like all your Fingers in my hand
There will be no river that we can't cross, no mountain
We can't climb
I'll make all the same mistakes, and you'll forgive me
Cause I won't love you next time

Like the phoenix rising from the fire again,
I will warm you with such fire even you could fall in Love with me, and then...
And I won't love you next time
When you fall in love with me, all this dreaming will be
Yours
All these riches throughout all eternity
But I won't love you next time
