"Ceremony Of Delusion"

Torture stuns me dropping on the floor
I writhe with pain and torture in the dirt
Twisted eyes and pale skin – like kissed by death
Strange glances chasing me staring cold

Ref:
Ceremony of delusion
Ceremony of pain and agony
Ceremony of delusion

Feeling blood dripping from my mouth
Still warm but soon cold – coagulate

Fear shakes my body – my limbs are numb
My actions restrain in obedience

Ref:
Ceremony of delusion
Ceremony of delusion

An incredible feeling pierces through my brain
Tearing me into lunacy
Laughter covering me and walking with me
On this path contaminated by fear and delusion
