Screaming out loud at the top of my lungs
Ready or not baby here I come
I know you're ready by the look in your eyes
No need to worry, we've got all night

It started out as a game
I knew it wasn't the same
Wanted to talk to you
But it's not easy
The music's playin' so loud
And people jumpin' around
But what you're wearin'
Drives me crazy

Through the crowd I see the look in your eyes
I don't wanna know anything except what you're doing
tonight
I step up, I gotta figure this out
But I don't wanna know anything except for you tonight

Screaming out loud at the top of my lungs
Ready or not baby here I come
I know you're ready by the look in your eyes
No need to worry, we've got all night
I told you that I'm smart
And that I'd figure it out
I told you that it's wrong
So it's probably right
We both look up at all the stars
I take your hand you took my heart

And as the night goes on I'm thinking this can't go wrong
Start to look around
Lose her completely
The music's playin' so loud
And people jumpin' around
And what she's wearin'
Drives me crazy

Through the crowd I see the look in your eyes
I don't wanna know anything except what you're doing

tonight
I step up, I gotta figure this out
But I don't wanna know anything except for you tonight

Screaming out loud at the top of my lungs
Ready or not baby here I come
I know you're ready by the look in your eyes
No need to worry, we've got all night
I told you that I'm smart
And that I'd figure it out
I told you that it's wrong
So it's probably right
We both look up at all the stars
I take your hand you took my heart

Screaming out loud at the top of my lungs
Ready or not baby here I come
I know you're ready by the look in your eyes
No need to worry, we've got all night

Screaming out loud at the top of my lungs
Ready or not baby here I come
I know you're ready by the look in your eyes
No need to worry, we've got all night
I told you that I'm smart
And that I'd figure it out
I told you that it's wrong
So it's probably right
We both look up at all the stars
I take your hand you took my heart
