Looking around, just to see if your ok Lock me out of the house, spent the night in the doorway
Know its nobody's fault, but your blaming me anyway
And now your all that I've got, but your fading away
Fading away
Tell me your ok
Tell me your ok
Tell me your ok

Now I'm trying to hold on, but your pushing me away
And I'm just wondering now can you see me the same way
Find my voice in your head and it wont go away
And now finally in this moment and I've been waiting all day
All day
Just tell me you're ok
Tell me your ok
Tell me your ok
Tell me your ok
So tell me youre ok...

I am not okay
I am not okay
I Wish for you everyday
I Wish for you everyday

So I came around just to see if your ok Lock me out of the house, spent the night in the doorway
