Little white lies-they hold little surprise

Good things come in threes

CHORUS

And the little I need-I need!

The places I haunt-the powers I taunt

Where the arrogance of presidents-drive with the top down

The most favoured nations-should be atheists

And pop singers bite bullets-and pops kiss the ground

Not the penny pinch manipulators-of the fundamentalists

CHORUS

For everyone spotted-ten get missed

And the CNN calling card-red herring day, "No news today"

The deeper you look-the longer the list

Somebody somewhere indirectly directs them on their way

CHORUS

Stand up a token figure-and twist whatever they say

Pin it on no one-it doesn't matter anyway

How many political despots worked for the USA and who controls the modern Russian way

And who controls down South America way

Death in the streets, death is a project

All in the weak, the poor, the rich, the racist and free thought should be looked upon

Because free thought went to jail, long ago

As an enemy

What a pity

How many political despots worked for the CIA

The spider's kiss, the White House astrologists

The spider's kiss, the White House astrologists

Fuck, it's the CIA

-----
