All those oh
So trendy in their flapper and flair
Delinquent derelict
Four walls and a square
Never should you worry about society
The best things in this life are never free
Treat this whole world to a cavalry rout
And when you've had enough of go, go, go and get out

Is everybody happy
Well are you happy

Get a live-in lover
Never leave her alone
The lifestyle is impressive
And you've moved up a tone
Circulate in circles
Leave the centre at home
And happy is this hero
Never needing a throne

Is everybody happy
Well are you happy

We're having a party and everyone's welcome
And if you've got no friends I'm sure we'll invent some

It's things and then it's places
Not people and their faces
It's things and then it's places
Not people and their faces
And are you happy

Don't go near the water till you learn how to swim
The parodies and prophecies
Cataclysm
Probably a proverb
Like blood from a stone
And happy is this hero
Never needing a throne

Is everybody happy

Well are you happy

It's things and then it's places
Not people and their faces
