Way back in time
Your brotherlike friendship has been mine
All of a sudden jealousy and anger
Took control

We were the best friends one can tell
Until our friendship fell
Bemoaned animosity
Viciousness atrocity

Did I do any harm to you
If I did I never knew
Hidden animosity
Doshonesty get; h hold of you

Disgusting your hypocrisy
Imbrues with idiocity
Not believe a word
Of all you once said

Now recognizing what went wrong
It is too late
Pretend to be my friend
You don't know what it meant
