Promises, promises
Old tired, worn out second hand sentences
One thing with you is certain
You're a really sad person, so sad

Disappointed a few people
When friendship reared its ugly head
Disappointed a few people
Well, isn't that what friends are for?
What are friends for?
What are friends for?

You, you're just a really bad person
Who won't? You won't, listen to anyone, no, not you
With those half moon eyelids
Just babbling on your useless defenses, so sad

Disappointed a few people
When friendship reared its ugly head
Disappointed a few people
Well, isn't that what friends are for?
What are friends for?
What are friends for?

This erratic haphazard, fluttering
This toeing and frowning like a confused moth
The collusion, illusion, it's all ad infinitum
You're a really sad person, you're really so sad

Disappointed a few people
When friendship reared its ugly head
Disappointed a few people
Well, isn't that what friends are for?
What are friends for?
What are friends for?

Fools and horses
Running their courses
And brow beaten down
Like dust on the ground

You cheat easily

Like sweet charity
And all of the bastards
The world all despises

Springing surprises
In newer disguises
You cheat easily
Like all charity

Fools and horses
Running their courses
And brow beaten down
Like dust on the ground

You cheat easily
Like sweet charity
And all of the bastards
The world all despises

Springing surprises
In newer disguises
You cheat easily
Like sweet charity

Fools and horses
Running their courses
And brow beaten down
Like dust on the ground

You cheat easily
Like sweet charity
