Like that, she did not like that
She did not like that she never will
Like that, she did not like that
She did not like that she never will
Just like a woman

Bad boy you should not do that
You penny pincher from rags to riches
And it's a pity so inexpertly
You mixed your roses with cabbages

Like that, she did not like that
She did not like that she never will

Like that, she does not like that
Like that, she did not like that
Like that, she does not like that
Like that, she did not like that
Just like a woman and every man

In human nature these snakes and ladders
The fairground noises are messages
Life would be dull and boring
Without the choices of passages

Just like those dancing dervish
We spin in circles, we strike up poses

Like that, she did not like that
She did not like that she never will
Just like a woman, and every man

Like that, she did not like that
She did not like that she never will
Like that, she did not like that
She did not like that she never will

Combine those dreams and wishes

On standard clauses and marriages

Like that, she did not like that
She did not like that she never will
Just like a woman, just like a woman, and every man

Like that, she did not like that
She did not like that she never will
Like that, she did not like that
She did not like that she never will
