Gates and towers keep you from the life you wish to
Lead
It is all out of key
States and flowers that you wish to see are so far from
Reach
And out of your league!

This time we tried hard
We stayed up all night
And we still couldn't find a way
We realise imperfection is infinite
How can we make it better?

We are who we are
We do what we do
Living this life
Always one step behind and never ahead

Late nights alcohol guide you through the day
With help from you friends
Thoughts keep you awake for days on end until you are Dead
Until you are dead!

This time we tried hard
We stayed up all night
And we still couldn't find a way
We realise imperfection is infinite
How can we make it better?

We are who we are
We do what we do
Living this life
Always one step behind and never ahead

Gates and towers keep you from the life you wish to
Lead!
It is all out of key!

This time we tried hard
We stayed up all night

And we still couldn't find a way
We realise imperfection is infinite
How can we make it better?

We are who we are
We do what we do
Living this life
Always one step behind and never ahead

We are who we are
We do what we do
Living this life
Always one step behind and never ahead
