(to vaccinate the prestone antifreeze,
before, before you go blind and your kidneys fail you, before you end up passed out and the flask she likes to carry ,you knew it) because you know that its all untalkable to you, because you know that you don't feel the same way that i do, and when you drink this bitterness its sweet reality because you know we don't listen to your lies.
"though you don't see how this is romantic to me" and all i begin to see is that you are falling fourth into delusion of how i want to feel but really im doing is patching up the bloody scars to vaccinate the prestone antifreeze,
before, before you go blind and your kidneys fail you,
when do you see that this isn't i how i long to be when you do this, stop i begin to develop a mental failure's illusion to your state and you begin to pre crash in fate justice, this pill, the lie of what the ekg graph is already reading, running it AV (audio visual) at two milligrams per sedative. and its all this pill in all your reality, anesthesiology,intubation and we got the right to consciousness

to vaccinate the prestone antifreeze,
before, before you go blind and your kidneys fail you,
i see the mind of insanity, get this blood pressure up in the rev.onto the real evil trial threw the hand it streams and to rethink every little isolation of the relapse left to isolate her decision life to vaccinate the prestone antifreeze,
before, before you go blind and your kidneys fail you,

(carry, you know it)
(antifreeze)
