Sleep child, I will bring you no harm
What I'll do when you're Sleeping farther away from
Me and our lover's trust
What you don't know cannot hurt us

It can't be wrong if I want to sleep
With everyone, I'm only seventeen once

And I should live for Today, today because
They'll never know how real
Know how real this feels
They'll never know how real
Know how real this feels
They'll never know how real
Know how real this feels
They'll never know how real
Know how real this feels

Here we lie, though I feel by myself
With a nameless face
That's a trophy on a shelf
To prove I'm really a man
And none of the others
Are half of what I am

What could happen
What's the worst that could be
Why don't you call the police
Why don't you call the police for her

Yeah, I'm just like you
They'll never know for sure
They'll never know how real
Know how real this feels
They'll never know how real
Know how real this feels
They'll never know how real
Know how real this feels
They'll never know how real

Know how real this feels

Yeah, I'll just wait for
Another Tuesday night
And I'll do it again
Yeah I'll do it again
Yeah, I'll just wait for
Another Tuesday night
And I'll do it again
Yeah I'll do it again

They'll never know how real
Know how real this feels
They'll never know how real
Know how real this feels
They'll never know how real
Know how real this feels
They'll never know how real
