What do you think this is?
I'm needing you to fall apart so I can stay full.
I read the texts and what they said;
You can't say you weren't leaving to go see some other
boy,
Cause the evidence was present.
It's not hard to act annoyed and start threatening to end this,
You know that's what it is. Isn't that what you're doing?
I need you. I want this.

But I won't play dumb anymore.

Forever you're still in denial.
You'll have to take this to your grave.
Forever you're still in denial.
You'll have to take this to your grave.

Why are you doing this to me now?
Using my tears to clean your heart.
Does it make you full to make me a fool?
You'll deny and say I'm crazy, say it's all up in my head.
I'm just tired now of fighting and you're never giving in.
I've had two whole years to say this,
Fuck, it won't come up again.
Your treason is the reason I need to get this through my head.

But I won't play dumb anymore.

Forever yours,
First Kiss Denial.
You'll have to take this to your grave.

Forever yours,
First Kiss Denial.
You'll have to take this to your grave.
