No good reason!

Talking your shit, playing your games.
You try to tell me who is righteous and tell me
Who is lame.
So easy to point fingers, to criticize.
But while everyone is laughing the spirit dies!

There is no good reason!
NO GOOD REASON!

Stand for your cause, look at the energy spent
You say it's reals but does it make you content
Cause friends are divided it doesn't seem right
And you're standing your ground but not gaining insight!

There is no good reason!
NO GOOD REASON!

JUST MAKE IT WORK!
JUST - MAKE - IT WORK!
We won't alway see eye to eye,
But we can see the good in each other to learn to compromise.
You and I make it work!
We can make it work!
