Today!
I can't see, I want to know
How you always give in and never explode.
No more anger, no more hate
Towards the ones who decide your fate.
Rack your brain do the math, you're the one
Who chooses the path.
Take it easy man accept the blame.
We'll move forward, one and the same.
Whose life is this anyway?
Stop listening to what they have to say.
Whose life is this anyway?
Stop the cycle and breakaway.
Pressure building, forcing us down.
Everyone wants something now
Right now.
Life can't be bought, life can't be sold.
Won't assume a position so foreign and cold.
You got a voice man so use it.
For communication and not excuses.
Friends aren't expendable
Commitment is basic not commendable.
Whose life is this anyway?
Stop listening to what they have to say.
Whose life is this anyway?
Stop the cycle and breakaway.
