One day, I was sailing on my boat
And no one really knows I caught a jellyfish
When I stared into his eyes
It almost made me cry, stupid jellyfish

And now I'm thinking of him
Made of substances unknown
The jellyfish was lonely
But he was not alone

One day I was driving in my car
Staring at the stars, not the road
When I smashed into a tree
I smashed my knee real hard

And then I got to thinking
I really really wish
I had a friend right now
Or a jellyfish
