"Jesus Nitelite"

Your eyes shine bright like a Jesus nitelite
I'd like to touch your positive vibes
Indifferent eyes won't give me the time
May I help put aside your moral fiber You're dressed in white my face is white
I'd like to be a colorful sight to see
I'm only here in a background
Here on the ground lies my head
I sleep and then I wake make sound and go to bed and wake again
The time is right but I feel all wrong
It wastes away until it's gone
The time is right but still I feel all wrong
It fades way and now you're gone
You're walking by I'm standing by Behind the light I'm standing
By and by
