"My Turn"

You stop me with your brown eyes,
I just don't know what to do.
I should just face the facts-
I have a crush on you.
I wanna take you away,
Find the right things to say
And make you feel the same-
And make you scream my name.
But I don't have a clue
Of just what to do.
Could you please help me out.
I wanna make you shout.
But you will never know
To what lengths I'll go
For me to make you mine;
I have all these feelings inside.
You and I should get away
To our special place.
I don't want to talk on the phone anymore.
I wanna see your face.
Rachel, this is the last time.
I want to give you chills,
The kind that I feel.
I think the world can see
That you were meant for me.
There's nothing I won't do
To be right next to you.
I want to hold your hand and
Make you understand
