By your look should I have something to say?
Confusion wasn't built in a day.
I took some time to mess up my life and
Its almost perfect let me get this right
We were different added together and

Congratulations I guess you're always right
Well I'm sorry that I ever tried
What happened to the world we knew?
We were so much better than this...

Memories destroyed by disease
And then buried in a layer full of words
You never meant to say
The reaction was greater than the screen
We were different added together and

Congratulations I guess you're always right
Well I'm sorry that I ever tried
What happened to the world we knew?

We were so much better than this

I didn't feel like this the whole time
But it didn't help when you made your predictions, yeah
We crossed this bridge, crossed it sometime ago
But I didn't know, I didn't know you would move on

Congratulations I guess you're always right
Well I'm sorry that I ever tried
What happened to the world we knew?
We were so much better than this
So much better than Congratulations I guess you're always right (you're always right...)

Well I'm sorry that I ever tried
What happened to the world we knew?
We were so much better than this
So much better than this (this...)

So much better than this
