When the world will fall apart,
And it feels like there's no air,
There's a place where you can run
To see your problems left behind.
When your faith seems locked away,
And the grey is all you see,
There's a place waiting for you
And that nobody can invade.

Your world in the world.
Where there's nothing wrong.
Your world in the world.
Where you feel at home.
Your know this world
Will never,
Never let you,
Never let you down.
Your world in the world.
Where it never rains.
Your world in the world.
Where you put your friends.
Your know this world
Will never,
Never let you,
Never let you down.
Your world in the world.

When the world is just a haze
And you can't work out this maze.
There's a place where you can go
To feel that everything's alright.
When the going starts to hurt
And you feel you're on the floor.
There's a place waiting for you
And that nobody can invade.

Your world in the world.
Where it never rains.
Your world in the world.
Where you put your friends.
Your know this world

Will never,
Never let you,
Never let you down.
Your world in the world
