I should be more than dead in my new bed but something happened with me, I'm not dead, I want to be free come on, let me out, I start to scream and shout but only the worms can hear my painful dying fear

I'm so alone in my new home it's so dark and gloomy, but not very roomy I don't feel good like I could suspended animation, a bad situation let me out!!!

some friends here I got, wait until I rot they laugh because I must be a fine repast I'm not so dead like my doctor said so let me out before I stop to shout
