I couldn't wait one moment to
Get in this car and get away from you
I'll turn around and crash this thing
I'll turn around and crash this thing

Just hit the brakes and get right out
There's no one here to hear you shout
To think I left you to this
To think I left you to this

I'll wait 'til this all comes crashing down
Forget the words but start somehow
I never thought we'd make it until now
I never thought we'd make it until now

I'm so lost but wanting more
This spirit tastes just like a cure
Intoxication breathes the truth
Intoxication breathes the truth

Looking down is looking up
These bloodshot eyes don't see it enough
I'm losing everything somehow
I'm losing everything somehow

I'll wait 'til this all comes crashing down
Forget the words but start somehow
I never thought we'd make it until now
I never thought we'd make it until now

I'll wait 'til we all just fall apart
Get to the end but still not start
I always thought that we were gonna end like this
I always thought that we were gonna end like

Speeding up and breaking out
Forgetting everything, crashing down
Make your mistakes, start it now
I'm losing everything somehow

Speeding up and breaking down

Forgetting everything, crashing down
Make your mistakes, start it now
I'm losing everything somehow

Losing everything somehow

I'll wait 'til this all comes crashing down
Forget the words but start somehow
I never thought we'd make it until now
I never thought we'd make it until now

I'll wait 'til this all comes crashing down
Forget the words but start somehow
I never thought we'd make it until now
I never thought we'd make it until now

I'll wait 'til we all just fall apart
Get to the end but still not start
I always thought it would end like this
