This is the opening of the show
So glad you came here tonight
Heard you got lost in the woods again
Well that makes two of us

[Chorus]

Take control of your mind
'Cause we're living in different worlds
Different worlds
It's just a matter of time
Till we're living in different worlds
Over and under again

So now we're going around and around
The clock strikes five and we howl
Vermillion eyes wrapped around your face
Cloaked in sugar
Dressed in in fiendshish flour

Waiting at your door
It's a version I've never heard before
Speak and shuffle your cards
I see through your facade
I'm on to you and now I'm going
Going, going gone

[Chorus]

Take control of your mind
'Cause we're living in different worlds
Different worlds
It's just a matter of time
Till we're living in different worlds
Over and under again

Systems are turning inside out
The end is drawing near

[Chorus]

Take control of your mind
'Cause we're living in different worlds
Different worlds
It's just a matter of time

Till we're living in different worlds
Over and under again
