There is no other like you,
Even if I look around, it's just no use,
To find someone good as you, good as you
Someone like you, a good guy like you,
How lucky that I'm the one,
Who will always support and be by your side,
To find someone happy like me, happy like me
Someone like me, that smiles happily

When your warm hands gets cold suddenly,
I'll make them warm again
When a strong heart like yours gets hurt badly,
I will help you always
Take my hands and, hold me silently,
I'm only wishing for such little happiness
You don't know my heart that
Wanted to do more for you and only you yea~

**Can you hear my heartbeat ponding, so loudly for you
It feels like the first time that I feel in love with you,
These remaining days are the ones that make life wonderful
*Repeat

When this poor heart of mine started changing,
And took it all for granted
Preventing my small greeds from overflowing,
And I found the strength to fight it
I already know the the reasons for all this,
Was beacuse I only thought of only you
I'm always thankful.
I wish I could do more for you and only you yea~

** & * Repeat

I know, you're a little just a little shy at times
But that's why I like you,
You don't know but you're burning likea a thousand suns,
On the TV shows you're the one sparkling the most,

Always the one catching my eye everytime
(Naega michyeo michyeo Baby)
Hearing you say that you love me,
I have everything in the world,
You & I, You're so fine, is there anyone like you?
"saranghae" Oh, and please know, to me there's only
you,
You are my everything and I will always be here for you

We arrived on the same road,
We're just the same, You and I are one
I'm just surprised, I'm just grateful,
It's just called love Oh yea~
