The distance and my heart's to sand flowing through the hourglass Time to let go of all we know
and break our hearts in stride

I need you now more like yesterday the last day I could see you smile for the last time turn out the lights
my life on standby

So standby and watch this fall away and fall apart

CHORUS:

Just say that it's over it's over and she's gone (now she's gone) don't worry he said and she's not coming home (she's not coming home) it's over and she's gone

The distance and my heart's
to sand flowing through the hourglass
I fall to pieces
I can't let go of all the times I never said goodbye

CHORUS REPEAT

wake up, wake up, wake up, wake up Wake up, now it's over, just tell me it's ok to die
Wake up, now it's over, just tell me it's ok to die
Wake up, now it's over, just tell me it's ok to die
