Careless words cut so deep
My heart breaks in two
I just want to run away but,
I know what I must do

I can't let the hurt have control
Got to find my strength in my soul

Chorus:
Before the Sun goes down
Before the world spins around
Before a new day's found
I must forgive
There's a grace that I've been shown
I know that I have to pass it on Got to make it right, right now
Before the sun goes down

forgiving's it get's hard on my own
So I start to pray
Give me strength and courage Lord
Help me to be brave

I wanna love just like you
I know there's no better time
(a better time)
to make a move

Before the sun goes down
Before the world spins around
Before a new day's found
I must forgive
There's a grace that I've been shown
I know I've got to pass it on

Got to make it right
Right now before the sun goes down

I've got to forgive before the sun goes down
I've got to forgive
Before the world spins around
I've got to forgive

before the sun goes down
I've got to forgive

Before the sun goes down
Before the world spins around
Before a new day starts
I must forgive
There's a grace that I've been shown
I know I've got to pass it on
Got to make it right
Right now before the sun goes down

Before the sun goes down
Before the world spins around (world spins around)
I must forgive (I must forgive)
There's a grace that I've been shown
