Hey you
So you never really found your way
Stay true
Did you ever make it through today

I know that when I think about a day without it
Everyday's the same
You wish that you could find someone
But I'm the only one to blame

(chorus)
Can't you see
I beg and plead
Cause when your eyes light up the skies at night
I know you're gonna find your way back to me

No don't
Don't you ever let a piece of me down
Cause time won't
Get back when I'm never around

When we live between so many walls
That I can barely breathe
You say that you just want someone
But I'm the only one you need

(chorus)
Can't you see
I Beg and plead
Cause when your eyes light up the skies at night
I know you're gonna find your way

If it's me
That you don't need
When the lights go out tonight I know
You're never gonna find your way

Soon when I get you I won't let you go
Oooh if I let you
You can take away all that I thought was wrong
And if you hear me there's not much to say

There's gotta be a better way

(chorus)

Can't you see

I beg and plead

Cause when your eyes light up the sky tonight

I know you're going to find your way back to me

Can't you see

I beg and plead

Cause when the lights go out tonight

I know you're never gonna find your way

If it's me

That you don't need

That when the lights go out tonight

I know you're never gonna find your way

If you pace around the world?

And when your eyes light up the skies at night

I know you're gonna find your way back to me
