Spin round, tell me what to say
Break down, no other way
What is it? Is this it?
This is it

Back to I never knew your name,
Stick through, sun after the rain
And she shines, how she shines
This is it

And shadows blend one last time (save those kisses)
And your picture speaks on this time (eyelash wishes)

Cause I've been up 3 days, awake, awake,
2 more weeks and I'm threatening to fade
The world still turns, what makes sense
Stretch this song to a fever cadence
Up 3 days, awake, awake,
2 more weeks and I'm threatening to fade
And all things close, all I wish,
Never change these distances

Green eyes, everything I see,
Green skies, if left up to me
And I know that she knows
This is it

And shadows blend one last time (save those kisses)
And your picture speaks on this time (eyelash wishes)

Cause I've been up 3 days, awake, awake,
2 more weeks and I'm threatening to fade
The world still turns, what makes sense
Stretch this song to a fever cadence
Up 3 days, awake, awake,
2 more weeks and I'm threatening to fade
And all things close, all I wish,
Never change these distances

Just be brave, just listen to me,
Your heart gives mine reason to beat now

Cause I've been up 3 days, awake, awake,
2 more weeks and I'm threatening to fade
The world still turns, what makes sense
Stretch this song to a fever cadence
Up 3 days, awake, awake,
2 more weeks and I'm threatening to fade
And all things close, all I wish,
Never change these distances

And shadows blend one last time (save those kisses)
And your picture speaks on this time (eyelash wishes)
