It's a new day
It's a bright day
Even when you stand in the dark
It's just that, you've been broken
Fifty pieces (the day is gone)
And I'm the only light that you see (you need someone)
I know all you needed was me

Every day, we wait
If it takes too long
Just tell me something new
Forget about the sunshine when it's gone

Now the pale moon, shines like high noon
Midnight never felt so cold alone
It's just that you're uneasy,
When you need me (the day is gone)
And I'm the only light that you see (you need someone)
I know all you needed was me

Every day, we wait
If it takes too long
Just tell me something new
Forget about the sunshine when it's gone
You can say its right, but it feels so wrong
Show me something true
Forget about the sunshine, forget about the sunshine
When it's gone

The day is gone
I'm the only light that you see
You need someone
And I know all you needed was me

Every day, we wait
If it takes too long
Just tell me something new
Forget about the sunshine when it's gone
You can think it's right when it feels so wrong
Show me something true
Forget about the sunshine when it's gone

Every day, we wait
If it takes too long
Show me something true
Forget about the sunshine when it's gone
You can think it's right, but it feels so wrong
Show me something true
Forget about the sunshine, forget about the sunshine
When it's gone
