Dark clouds are blowin' in the wind
He's crossin' your mind again
You got that sad, sad feelin'
From a broken heart and
Feelin' so close to the end

[CHORUS]

Let me love you tonight
There's a million stars in the sky
Let me love you tonight
I'll make everything all right

When you find out how good love can be
You're so lost when it sets you free
They say once in your life
You find someone that's right
Someone who loves you like me

[Repeat CHORUS]

When the moon has forgotten
What the night's about
And the stars can't work their places out
Hold me tighter than tight
When the daylight comes
It'll be all right

[Repeat CHORUS 2x]
