[Verse 1]

Take it back, take it back, you're on the wrong track.
Gonna tear this up to little pieces.
Take it slow, take it slow, gotta find out what you know
Before a chance flies by, you can't erase it.
Place all your bets, Forget all regret.

[Prechorus]

Can you hear me now? There is no way out.
Let's tear down these walls and show the world how it's done.

[Chorus]

This is me still standing on my two feet and you can't hold me down.
The whole world crumbles down when the clock strikes
twelve
I'm leaving you behind, you can't make a sound
I'll never be what you want of me.

[Verse 2]

Turn it up, turn it up for all to hear this We've found a way to mend all the pieces
Forget about the past, we're gonna kick your ass,
Don't try and run there's no way around it.
Faster these days they pass by and my feelings I cannot hide.
Topped off with all this doubt, trapped inside a box
without a sure way out

[Pre-Chorus]

Can you hear me now? There's no way out.
Let's tear down these walls and show the world how it's done.

[Chorus]

This is me still standing on my two feet, and you can't
hold me down.
The whole world crumbles down when the clock strikes
twelve
I'm leaving you behind, you can't make a sound.

I'll never be what you want of me.

[Bridge]

It's time to follow through, so much for second chances

It's time to follow through, we can see right through you
