Not again

Here I lay again

There you lay again

Same thing on our minds

But a difference in our thoughts

And a world of difference going on inside our temples

Is it a wonder

Why I'm in this self pity

What I'd give

To make it go away

There you lay again

And I'm looking again

One thing on my mind

Its been made to be that way

Did I take you to the top?

Yeah, right

Yeah, right

There you lie again

Is it a wonder

Why I'm in this self pity

What I'd give

To make it go away
Because I need it
And I want you too as well
To want me, amidst this carousel
I'm sick, your not sick anymore
Taken the place, it's going too far
It's worthless
It's more than what's real
It's more than I've got
Are you sure?
Are you sure?
Are you sure?
Are you sure?
Are you sure?
Tell me if your sure
Tell me anyway
Tell me I love you
