I had a dream you were living with an astronaut
I had a dream you were living with an astronaut

I saw it all on an SNL rerun
It's kind of sad that I missed out on all the fun
I had some questions, like how was his libido?
And did you do it when the gravity was zero?

I had a dream you were living with an astronaut
I had a dream you were living with an astronaut

You told me that he's not your type of guy
But how do I know that's not just another lie?
If you could lie when you were living on a spaceship
Then heaven knows what else could come across your lips

I had a dream you were living with an astronaut
I had a dream you were living with an astronaut

Nah, Nah, Space Boy
Nah, Nah, Space Boy
Nah, Nah, Space Boy

There's nothing to discuss
I think it's all been covered
And while it lasted it was fun to be your lover
I hope you're glad
You joined the thousand mile high club
And maybe one day I will see you in the pub

I had a dream you were living with an astronaut
I had a dream you were living with an astronaut

I had a dream you were living with an astronaut
I had a dream you were living with an astronaut
