When it stops I can see so clear,
And like a star I can disappear,

You're only half the way you were,
And your other half is calling,
So when you take a look around,
You'll realise it's only leaving,

So come on, come on, come on,
Out here,
So come on, come on, come on,
(You're only half the way you were)
(You're only half the way you were)
(You're only half the way you were)
(You're only half the way you were)

I can't lie my left hand is shaking,
I'll be fine once my head stops aching,

So just take back the clothes you stole,
Cause now you're in control it's clear,
But you're only half the way you were,
You're only half the way you were last year, (last year)

So come on, come on, come on,
Out here,
So come on, come on, come on,
(You're only half the way you were) [sung constantly in background]

When I was nine you gave me the sign,
It showed me so well,
I thought it hard at the time I committed a crime,
But you never can tell,
How do I explain the way, (the way I feel)
I'm not exactly here,
You know I've been blinded out on a golf course, ???? yeah

So come on, come on, come on,
So come on, come on, come on,

You're only half the way the were (x 8)

I didn't know at the time I committed a crime,
But you never can tell,
How do I explain the way, (the way I feel)
I'm not exactly here,
You know I've been blinded, I'm lay on a lounge
