Well I know there is something about you girl

Though they say that nobody can change the world
In your eyes there's a smile
There's a soothing camomile Makes it feel worth my while, waiting for you girl

You move me
You move me
You move...

I must say I was smitten so long ago
I got caught pulled right down by your undertow
Just like the stars always shine
Just like them you can't be mine
Sing a sad Valentine all about you girl

You move me
You move me
You move...

I know it's time to stop believing every part of me is wrong
I know it's time to start believing
'cos I need to carry on Without you girl

You move me
You move me
You move me
