

For Godly Sorrow

Your words are written in the skies
Reflections of my past
The situation gets clear to me
So far away from what I used to be
I grab my fears
By the throat as the air goes off
I wipe my tears
By the hands that are long gone
I will stand tall forever
I'll find my way out of this darkhole
I'll find my way out of this hellhole
I'll find my way out
Your words mean nothing to me
Lies are the only thing that I hear
You better stop praying
Because my scars won't go away
I will stand tall forever
I will fight with all
Whenever
Fear me, feel me
Fear me all the time
She can't stop begging
Because my scars won't go away
She can't stop begging
She can't fucking stop
I will stand tall forever
I'll find my way out of this darkhole
I'll find my way out of this hellhole
I will breakdown your feelings
I will breakdown
