

For Ophelia's Death

"In Your Arms"

In your arms I rest
For the last time in this dead hour
Stuck in the loneliness
Hated by everyone
Everyone I should know
I'm only trying to make you suffer
I'm not trying to end this suffering
"How could this ever go back?"
"How could we ever turn this around?"
"How could this ever go back?"
"How could we ever turn this around?"
I said my last goodbye
I said it to everyone
I closed my eyes and fell asleep
Starts my longest journey
My search for the truth
My search for the right path
The right direction
