come on little honey, well you gotta' let me know,
when my mind says yes, your body's saying no.
come on little honey, let me know just how you feel,
I'm tired of always dreaming, let me try it once for real.
forget the loving and romance, lets give our lust a chance.

put aside the past and let the good time start.
no one will you tell, when you feel my passion swell, just a moment of surprise as I slip into your life.

dreams are just for dreaming.
when you wake up ther's no revealing,
the thoughts you have behind closed eyes.
dreams are just for dreaming honey, Ã±cos when I wake up ther's no way I'm revealing, just what we've done inside my mind.

said it before, so i'll say it again,
I want you more now than I could have then.
lying in my bed I come to perceive,
though love was lost your worth to me.
no memories of joy insight,
just a dim recollection of one last fight.
because I'm a two time loser, physical self abuser.
the only one I ever satisfied was me.
