"Hey Willy"

Hey Willy your mother calls you Billy your father calls you silly but you really are a pretty one

Hey baby you're dressing like a lady The fellows call you Sadie
but you really are a pretty one

You don't care what they say about your hair
'Cause the bad man's smiling every time he sees you comin' yeah

Willy is the singer in a rock'n'roll band Every time he shows his face put away your

Oh yeah Willy's gonna show them now
No no no no Willy's gonna go somehow

My name's Willy gonna turn on the lights playing rock'n'roll music to early early night Can't stop dancing to the rhythm in your feet Listen to the drummer Yeah listen to the beat chorus

Hey Willy your mother calls you Billy your daddy calls you silly
but you really are a pretty one
