Open up your eyes looking at the people
Wouldn't it be nice if they were always smiling
Open up your eyes looking at the people
Wouldn't it be nice if they were always smiling smiling

Wake in the morning Look out of my window down on the street as the people pass by Wonderful faces awake but asleep rushing around with appointments to keep rushing around with appointments to keep

Bald-headed banker with bowler on head Credit for debit but still in the red Schoolgirl in pigtails and freckly nose trying to remember her Latin prose

chorus

Open up your eyes open up your eyes
Open up your eyes open up your eyes
Isn't it surprising what you'll find

What are they thinking What's on their minds Are they all looking for something to find Decreasing circles running around searching for something they've already found
searching for something they've already found
