Just cause you got a broken toe
Don't mean you can't stand up tall
You ain't got a mobile phone
Don't mean you can't call
They say that you're made of ice
Don't mean you're a fake
They say that I'm just like you
Someday I might break
I heard you call through a broken window
Trumpets singing from miles away
Saxophones in a grown man's voice would play
The day I turned to glass
Just cause you got a talking bird
Don't mean it's gonna talk
Just cause you got a rocking horse
Don't mean you can rock
So what if you send me a bill
Don't mean I'm gonna pay
You can send me a piano
Don't mean I'm gonna play
I heard you call through a broken window

Trumpets singing from miles away

Saxophones in a grown man's voice would play

The day I turned to glass

The day I turned to glass

Heartbreak city limits coming up ahead

Open door are you jumping out

Or staying in

I know we'll be this way again
