Why do you have to be so rude
You need a change of attitude
Why are you such a bitch ass trick
Stick with your clique
Why do you have to be so loud
You're a dick and you're so so proud
This is a message that I must convey
I have to say
I hate you and your ways
Soon you're gonna see the end of your days
I have you and your crew
Soon we're gonna see the end of you
How can one person be so cool
Look at all the girlies drool
They don't realize that you're such a fake
What a mistake
How can one person be so tough
When it counts you're not tough enough
This is a message that I must convey
I have to say
I hate you (6x)
You have a little dick
I hate you (6x)
You are a fucking prick
I hate you (3x)
And your fucking crew
