There is always a place some say that it's heaven where someday we'll find some kind of escape but one thing I know we find it together
as long as you're there
there is always a place

A faraway land, a desert oasis
an island of sun
in a forest of rain.
Don't need to look far just into your smile
as long as you're there
there is always a place.

And if there's always we can run to there's always a place we belong and if there's always a dream, it can only come true as long as we keep holding on,
There is always a place - always
There is always a place - always. Yeah

There is always a place, when I am way beyond lonely, with nothing to hide, and nothing to prove there is always a space, that's there for me only I know deep inside, the place is with you.

There is never a time to question our feelings there is hardly a word, that seems out of place we'll find our way home,
we find it together-

as long as we keep holding on,

Uhh and if there's always we can run to
as long as we keep holding on,
That's good.
