Aristst: Hooters, The
Album: Nervous Night
Track: South Ferry Road
(Eric Bazilian; Rick Chertoff; Rob Hyman)

The night we stole the moon, a pirate's paradise
The light along the ocean was in your eyes
It ended all too soon, it started suddenly
The bridge was almost open when we arrived

And when I thought I was lost you carried me across
Laughing through the fallout zone
You touched me in a way I'd never known
And in the salt-scented air I followed you there
You taught me everything I know
I'm going down again....
South Ferry Road

We found a place to land, a space-age hideaway
Safe inside the shelter, just you and I
The night we stole the moon you gave it back to me
The light along the ocean was our goodbye

And when I thought I was lost you carried me across
Laughing through the fallout zone
You touched me in a way I'd never known
And in the salt-scented air I followed you there
You taught me everything I know
I'm going down again....
South Ferry Road

But even still, now and then, I remember you when Laughing all the way back home
You touched me in a way I've never known
And all the others remain just faces in a game
Remind me of a place I know
I'm going down again....
South Ferry Road

And when I feel like I'm lost, you carry me across
Back to everything I know

I'm going down again....
South Ferry Road
