Look a little bit closer
Look a little bit closer at me now
Look how much I've changed, threw all my bad habits away
Position changed, I'm ready for the next round

Away away away
You took my breath away
To spit it out

I promise you won't regret
Won't regret that you took me back this time
Woah woah woah woah

'Cause things are moving too fast
I don't think this will last the rest of our lives
Position changed, I'm ready for the next round

Away away away
I took your breath away
To spit it out

Away away away
The time will take away all your hopes and doubts

Hey now look out these things happen for a reason
Hey now look out something's got to break now
Hey now look out woah
Hey now look

Away away away
I'll take your breath away
Just to spit it out out out out out yeah

Away away away
I took your breath away
Just to spit it out, spit it out

Away away away
I'll take your breath away
Just to spit it out
