Where the music bred from the heart of a guitar,
Is where my love for her began.

There'd be note she made it sing captivated by her
Swing,
She had a way to give command.

And I was finding love so careless, I was stupid, I was Young.
And I was addicted to the way she filled my lungs.
And then he came around into my baby's arms.

Hope is alone, hope is alone.
Hope is alone, but hope's not alone.

She wont be hard of a kiss pulled from her lips,
Oh and the way she worked those hips, it was love right
From the start.
Samantha stole the keys to baby's car and she killed
The electric heart.

Hope is alone, hope is alone
Hope is alone, but hope's not alone.

La la la la la la la
La la la la la la la
La la la la la la la
La la la la la la la

Hope is alone, hope is alone
Hope is alone, but hope's never alone...

That girl, that girl's outta control.
