You are you and you don't see the power you have over
me but I feel it in my throat before you say such things to me
All in all may very be the quiet ain't so bad you see that I'm prepared for anything you can't take easily
I don't feel it anymore
Maybe mine was never meant to be the only monument one flesh that I might serve to you to be my only matter
You don't feel it any
I don't feel you anymore
I don't want to break your back
I am
I don't want to love like that
I am
Now I'm a loner, Loner
Body's gonna break your back
I am
And I don't want to love like that
I am
Now I'm a loner, Loner
I don't feel it any
You won't feel it anymore
Now I'm a loner, Loner
