Lashes low
Half-filled glasses kill the pain as
The TV flashes in the room
Face to face
We already know we just can't face it
We both need better days and
Better days don't come to love like this

Here we are
We are standing toe to toe and face to face
It's been seven years and
I try, but I can't erase
Forever lost alone, without a trace
We are each other's greatest mistake

Say goodbye
You've wanted to for so long now that
There's no need to go in fear
It'll be all right
At least we now have honesty
Though it's painful
It's beautiful so go
Before you say something you might regret

Here we are
We are standing toe to toe and face to face
It's been seven years and
I try, but I can't erase
Seeing you now and
I'm back in the same old place
We are each other's greatest mistake

I am the greatest; greatest mistake

Here we are
We are standing toe to toe and face to face
It's been seven years and
I try, but I can't erase
It's written all over your face
We are each other's greatest mistake
